Preface to the

Williams Family of Westfield, N.J. and Davenport, Ia. and Related Families.

The Westfield, New Jersey, branch of the Williams family, which settled in Davenport, Iowa, has already had its chronicler in Frances Robinson Williams, who wrote a short historical sketch about 1891-4. A copy is included in these pages and in the Biographical History of Scott County, Iowa- by Harry E. Downer, vol. II., p. 77, Publ. by Amer. Biog. Co., to be found in Iowa Historical Library, Des Moines. There are now no surviving male descendants to carry on the Williams name. My grandmother, Mrs. Williams (F.R.W.), bereft of her adored husband, Alexander Williams, and their two most promising grown sons, Fred and Rob, all in a few years, poured out her love for her daughters, her neice, and her husband's many neices. One daughter, Ella W. Thompson is still living in California. To other young relatives and friends, she generously gave the advantages of education and travel. More than a dozen of this number, of whom I am one, rise up and call her blessed.

At this time I want to gratefully acknowledge the help of five women, without whom this compilation would have been impossible:- Grace Miller LeFurge, who allowed me to copy what I wanted of her extensive research of the families, Miller, High, Pierson, Maxwell, Crane, Matthew Williams, and Squier. May Hamilton Bickers of Westfield, N.J., worked out three generations of Westfield Williamses for me. My New Jersey sister, Gene Crawford Shull, has found much data for me on the Clark, Williams, Crosby and other families and has aided me financially. Minnie Eldridge Schlegel has let me copy data from her Williams Family Bible and gave me my grandmother's precious MSS. She gave me money too. Eve M. Junek has copied hundreds of pages in a most painstaking and beautiful way. I cannot name the cousins of my mother who have gladly given me material on their own families, but I thank all these again.

Mrs.Bickers' reasons for believing Miles Williams was the father of Samuel and John,the Samuel whose will we have, dated 1801,and that Miles may have been the son of one of the family of Samuel Williams (1653-1707)-- are given in part of her letter of March or April,1938:- p.42

"I am growing more and more convinced that Miles,whose will was probated in 1747,was father of John and Samuel the two brothers given by Little.Some of my reasons fo for this belief follow.

1.His will was made Oct 17,1747.He died and was buried in Westfield.Tombstone date of death as Oct 271747, ten days after will was drawn.Will proved May 4,1748 Tombstone says age was 50,which would make his birth around 1697.he was of borough of Elizabeth & at that date Westfield was still a part of borough of Elizabeth.In his will he mentions wife Phebe & sons Samuel,John & Joshua(under age0,dau. Ann.Speaks of nephew John ,son of Samuel Williams,so he also had a brother Samuel.Samuel whose will mentions your Nathaniel,died in 1801.Therefor he must have been born 1722-3 says he was in 78th year.John whose tombstone is in Westfield,died April 11,1782 aged 59.This woul would give his birth as approximately 1723.This would make Samuel and John about one year apart as t to age --- their ages also check as to Miles Williams' age.He would have been 25 years of age when p.2. "1724" given by descendants. p.3.

2.John was born.

2.John's will,1782 can be found in Trenton-might clear some doubtful things,or might complicate more.

3.Presbyterian church records (Westfield),baptisms, marriages,tombstones,seem to bear out my theory,for John's children & grandchildren are in these records: John's tombstone number is 612,Miles' is 611.

(I cannot agree with Mrs.Bickers that Miles might have been a son of Samuel Williams(1653-1707) because his name is not mentioned in this Samuel's will,and Miles was still living at that date,1707.But his age and place of residence was so near that of Samuel's children,that he likly was closely related,maybe a nephew of Samuel's. Samuel's brothers were Amos Williams and Matthew,Jr.,of Essex Co.,N.J. and Newark,N.J. We do not have the names of their children.- F.C.V.- 1938.) p.42.

Notes:-Samuel Williams, his two wives, and the four children of Nathaniel are all buried in the same plot in the churchyard, Elizabeth.
Mrs. J.E.Bickers, Westfield, gave data for Samuel Williams being the father of Nathaniel, also data for Sarah Anne Leighton and the children who were buried in New Jersey.

From New Jersey Archives, First Series, Vol. XXll:

"Williams Farms" seems to have been sort of a small place similar to p.45.
Branch Mills, Crane's Ford (Cranford), or Willow Grove. The first mention of name of this place is in connection with Samuel, son of Matthew who settled at "Williams Farms", between Elizabeth Town and Westfield after 1683. (see family of Samuel, son of Matthew) p.42.
We believe that Miles Williams, grandfather of Nathaniel, was close-l y related to this Samuel Williams, son of Matthew. He might have been a son or a nephew, but the will of said Samuel does not mention Miles' name." (F.C.V.) p. 3 .

"Alexander Fraser Williams was born in Westfield New Jersey, June 15th 1826. His parents, Charles Clark Williams and Eliza High Miller were married in 1818 at Westfield.

"They had 10 children, seven daughters and three sons-Alexander being the 4th (fourth) child, and eldest son. But four of the family are now living:William Belden Williams, in Nebraska-Mrs. Wm Vandever of Ventura California, Margaret Dougherty in Iowa, and Mrs. Ezra Millard of Omaha, Neb.

"Most of Mr. Williams' ancestors were farmers, and all bear an honorable record, as honest, hard working men, and women, living in a quiet, humble way.

"The Williams' branch of the family were Welch, his Grandfather Nathaniel Williams, had three children, a son who died in early manhood, a daughter Ann, who married Willard Barrows-one of Iowa's earliest, and most honored citizens, the other son-Charles Clark, being Mr. Williams' father.

"Nathaniel Williams lived in Davenport with his daughter, Mrs. Barrows for a number of years, where he died in 1864(1861), over 80 years of age(87 years). Nathaniel Williams' wife was American. Her father, Charles Clark served through the Revolutionary War, we do not know what his position was, but he must have been an officer, as he wore a sword, the silver hilt of which was melted into six tablespoons about 80 years ago, two of them were given to each of his three grand children-Samuel Clark, Charles Clark Williams, and Betsey Smith. These spoons are still highly prized by the present generation.

"On the Mother's side, the grandfather Ezra Miller was English, and the grandmother Mary High, German, her father, John High, leaving Germany when a little boy.

"Mr. Williams' father, Charles C. Williams was highly esteemed by all who knew him. He was an earnest Christian man, being an honored Elder in the Presbyterian church, for many years, in Westfield and Newark, N.Jersey-also for several years in the 1st Pres. church, Davenport, where he died in 1855 of cholera; all who knew him felt that he was a martyr to his unselfish care of the laboring men, who were victims of that terrible scourge. Mr. Williams' Mother was a faithful, loving wife, and Mother, appreciated most by those who knew her best. Davenport, and vicinity was her home for over 30 years; she died in 1878 at her daughters' in Nebraska where she spent the last few years of her life.

"Alexander Williams' early boyhood was spent on his father's farm in Westfield.. When eleven years old, his parents removed to Newark, N.Jersey where he spent several years, attending private schools, and Academy. He was also at a good school in Caldwell, N.J. for one year, giving him, what was then considered, a fair education. In 1843, when Mr. Williams was 17 years of age, the family removed to Davenport, then looked upon as the far West. He remained there about four years, assisting his father, upon his farm, near Davenport, and spending several months ith his Uncle Willard Barrows, helping him in his surveying tours through Iowa.

"Farming never suited his taste, so in 1847 he went into the Dry Goods Store of his Uncle, Moses Miller, at Racine, Wis. After his years there, his longing for the East decided him to return to New York City, where he entered the wholesale Hardware Store of John C. Tucker, where he remained three years, acquiring a knowledge of the business, to which he gave the latter and greater part of his life.

COPY of original MSS. by Frances Robinson Williams concl'd.

"In 1852, Mr. Williams received a more advantageous offer, and entered the employ of Ely, Bowen, and McConnell, Wholesale Dry Goods House on Broadway. He remained with them for six years, half of that time having charge of the White goods department, and buying goods for the same. In the financial crash of 1858, this New York firm failed, and at the same time, he received an offer to go into business in Davenport, where his widowed mother and family lived.

" Feb. 17th 1858, Mr. Williams was married to Frances Mary Robinson of Chicago, and after spending over two months in the East purchasing his stock of Dry Goods, thus combining business with pleasure, he began his career in Davenport May, 1858 as junior partner of Eldridge and Williams, 123 Brady Street.

"In the next three years a fine business was established, Mr. Williams going to New York and Boston three or four times each year to purchase goods. Just in the midst of their success, the Civil War burst upon us, and in a few months nearly all business was paralized, and failures were the order of the day. Eldridge and Williams are among the unfortunate ones, who were obliged to succumb to the pressure.

"The financial outlook was dark, and discouraging, but Mr. Williams looked upon the bright side, and with him, there was no such word as fail. His natural impulse and desire was, to take part in his country's struggle against Rebellion. His only brother Belden Williams, and the only brother of his wife Frank C. Robinson, were among the first to enlist, and served faithfully through the long four years War. Mr. W. was convinced that his duty must be at home, in the care of his widowed Mother, young wife, and child.

"In the fall of 1861, he took a position with Sickles and Preston, a prominent Hardware firm in Davenport, thus returning to his first choice of occupations-he remained with them about four years, two of which he travelled for their Wholesale house just established in Chicago. Then he received an offer from the well known Hardware firm of Wm Blair and Co., Chicago, with a large advance of salary. After travelling for that firm four years, he was quite ready to settle down in the city of his choice-Davenport, where his family had continued to reside during the six years he had spent upon the road, giving the best powers, and strength of his young manhood, to the honorable cancelling of all indebtedness.

"In 1869 he entered into partnership with R. Sieg, and the wholesale Heavy Hardware firm of Sieg and Williams was established. As Mr. Williams had an extensive knowledge of the business, he did the purchasing, and during the eighteen years that he was connected with that firm, helped largely in building up a successful, and lucrative business, which is at present known as the Sieg Iron Company.

"For nearly thirty years Mr. Williams was intimately associated with the growth of Davenport, and deeply interested in every thing which promoted its prosperity. He felt an especial intrest in the Henepin Canal project, and the building of the D.E.&D.R.Road, was one of its first directors.

"Mr. Williams united ith the Baptist church, while in business in New York City, and for over 30 years, was a consistent and active worker in that, and the Davenport church.

"For a number of years, he was senior trustee of the Calvary Baptist Church, and, the last few years of his life, was deeply interested in, and an active worker, in the new church project.

"He died at Atlantic, Iowa Dec. 15th 1887, after a short illness of 10 days, away from his home, and family, only his wife, and son in law Doctor Crawford, being with, and caring for him. But with him, death was but the entrance into new life." (written ~~in~~ 1894 by my beto grandmother Frances R. Williams-F.C.V.)

I don't know who he was the son of as Chas., Jr. was born in 1782 and his first wife in 1785. The other two sons were Samuel & Benj. b. in 1786 & 1787. The grandchild, Charles Clark, may have been the son of one of the daughters, & named Charles Clark for the grandfather."-letter from Mrs. Wm. John Miller Family

Ref.-Passaic Valley Early Settlers-Little.--Easthampton Town Records Vol.1&2.---Hist. of Union Co.---Encyclopedia of Biography, State of New Jersey.--Easthampton Hist., by Judge Hedges, p. 305.. Town of Cranford, p.403.

Among the first settlers of Easthampton, L.I., appear the names of Thos. Baker, Samuel Parsons, Benjamin Price, and John Miller, Sen. We find their names in the Town Records as early as 1649. Historians tell us that they came mostly from Maidstone, Kent C., England.

In L.I., farmers & pursuit of whales. Houses little thatched cottages.. Original settlers were Thomas Osborne, Wm. Hedges, founder of ancestors of Pierson of Westfield-Ralph Doylin (?),-from England Lynn Gardiner-1639. Samuel Parsons came from Lynn, Mass.,1649.. John Miller, Sen.. came 1649 with friends (see Town Records). Thos. Baker came from England 1639, to Easthampton 1649, he kept tavern; date 1654, m.. Alice Dayton. Wm. Shellinger a Dutchman came 1657. Benj.. Price (forbear of Grace Miller LeFurge) whl m. Mary Sayre, came to E.H. 1649.. Had leading part in affairs, founder of Price family of Elizabeth, N.J.. Original allotments of land were 34 in number, 8-12 acres each.. A portion designated as "Miller's Corners". Many first settlers' remains are buried in old Amaganset buriel grounds adjoining church.. Miller is an English, not German name..

John Miller, Sen. came from Lynn, Mass., to Easthampton, L.I., when well advanced in years, lived and finally died there(?). He was allotted land and it was designated as "Miller's Corners". Little is known regarding his wife, though we find deeds signed by them; following are some instances found in Easthampton Town Records:-

Vol.1-Deeds signed by John Miller, Sen., p.193
John Miller sold to Roger Smith; witnesses, Benjamin Price, and Mary Sayre Price. The above witnesses are the first one of the Price ancestors (Grace's) of Elizabeth town, N.J.

Vol. 2- p. 419. John Miller, Sen., L.S.--Elizabeth O. Miller, L.S. Dated July 18, 1698..
p. 421, John Miller signs abstract alone, July 22, 1698.

Vol.5 p.419, Church records, communicants of Easthampton Church when Nathaniel Huntington was ordained before 1699, wife of John Miller.

Encyclopedia of Biography, N.J.:- "John Miller, first known ancestor, settled first at Lynn, Mass. and later in 1649, in Easthampton, L.I. where he spent the remainder of his days. He married Miss Pierson of Suffolk Co., L.I., N.Y., a dau. of Rev. Abraham Peirson. The sons of John Miller emigrated to Elizabeth, N.J. and settled there."

Hist. of Union Co.,N.J. states, "Miller family earliest family of Township. JOHN MILLER came from L.I. about 1698 and one of first Associates of Elizabethtown. The fourth son of John first was John second, whose wife was Martha---."

Judge Hedges' Hist. states, "These early settlers of Easthampton were Puritans and came from colony of New Haven, Conn., and from Maidstone, Kent Co., England. John Miller, Sen. came 1649."

Since onehistorian states that John Miller, Sen. was advanced in years when he came to Easthampton and he was a friend of Rev. Abraham Pierson, Sen., who joined the New Haven colony, under John Davenport in 1644, it seems more correct to believe that the wife of John Miller, Jr. was Martha, dau. of Rev. Abraham Pierson, instead of the wife of John Miller, Sen.

Deed signed by John Miller, Sen. and Elizabeth O. Miller. No doubt she was the dau. of John Ogden or Osborne, both early Long Island families.
Wife of John Miller, Sen. died about 1698. No record found of death of John Miller, Sen.
They had five sons & two daughters.

White Bear Lake, Minn.

Dear Madam:

Complying with your request of recent date, there is given herein all information available in the files of this office pertaining to the military record of the MOSES MILLER in whom you are interested, and who served from the State of New Jersey during the period of the Revolutionary War:

MOSES MILLER-Essex County. Served as a Private, Captain Richard Townley's Company, (from Elizabethtown Township), First Regiment, Essex County Militia; Private, Captain John Scudder's Company, Colonel Samuel Potter's First Regiment, Essex County Militia, October 1, 1777; Private, Captain Benjamin Laing's Company, Colonel Moses Jaques' First Regiment, Essex County Militia, December 3, 1780 to January 1, 1781; received Certificate No. 1200 amounting to 1:15: 0, for the depreciation of his Continental pay in the Essex Co. Militia. ~~Original signature on file~~. Original signature on file.

Would advise this man's signature is followed by letters resembling "Jur." However, it is impossible to decipher them correctly, so it is difficult to determine whether or not the man should be designated "Junior", and in view of the uncertainty his record has been compiled under the name "MOSES MILLER".

Very truly yours,
(Signed) William A. Higgins,
Brigadier General,
The Adjutant General.

Early Passaic Valley Settlers, by Little

Notes-

The Maxwell family which settled in New Jersey are the descendents of Thomas Maxwell of the Kirkconnell line, who commamded the rear guard of King James or St. Rath's Army and who, at the capitulation of Limerick, chose to remain in Ireland and settled in he north of Ireland, County of Tyrone. --The descendants of the Maxwell family spring from the stock of MACUS, son of Auluf, King of Northumbria, A.D., 949. The name has passed through various forms, as, Maccus, Maccuswell, and Maxwell, which latter has been retained since A.D. 1150. The branch from which the N.J. families descend, is "Ye Maxwells of Polloc". This family with 14 others is Mentioned by Lord Hales as having accompanied Edward Atheling into Scotland, when England submitted to William of Normandy. --Caerlvare, Rock Castle, situated in Dumfriesshire, on the shore of Solway, was the headquarters of the Maxwell Clan. The family was conspicuous in the history of Scotland, and their fame and good name has been celebrated in song and story in modern times; by Robert Burns, Sir Walter Scott, and others. Legend assigns to this branch of the Maxwell family the motto: "Ready, Aye Ready" or, in French, "Je Suis Pret", which was obtained as follows: When Wallace was in his greatest strait hiding in caves and glens near Lanark, the leader of the Maxwell Clan hunted him and tendered to him, himself and followers. To this offer, Wallace replied, "Ready, Aye Ready Noble Scot", which from that time became Maxwell Family Motto. (quoted from papers of Grace M. LeFurge)

"I believe the Highs were Dutch, as I find among first settlers were those of Utrecht, N.Y. the land belonging to Westfield, N.J. was purchased from the Indians by the Dutch and the early history dates from 1699. The first person bearing the name of High, of whom we have knowledge (1935), was John High, Sen., of Westfield; from whence he came, we have no knowledge. The historian, Richard P. Greaves of Dunellan, N.J., who is compiling a history of the first families of Westfield, says that he does not believe that High was of German descent, that the Germans came later and went further West.---Ref. Hist. of Union Co., by Ricord; Passaic Valley Early Settlers, Little; Jerseymen in Revolution; Bible Records, Moses Miller, Racine, Wis. First settlers of Westfield were among those of our ancestor, John High, Sen., John Maxwell, Benjamin Squier, all of whom were founders of large families. John Maxwell came from Scotland, 1650, landing at Amboy in 1659. Benjamin Squier, founder, resided there in 1699, owning 400 acres of land. Hist. of Union Co. states that John High lived, in 1753, where widow Rachel High Mooney resided in 1839, opposite what is now the Ritchie place. The house is gone, but the old well is there. It was here that the neighborhood prayermeetings were held in the High home. During the Revolutionary War the descendants of these early families were among those who protected their protected their families and property against the British; many lost their lives in doing so. Hist. of Union Co., p. 512, says: 'We find the names of patriots Robert and John Aken, Jr., John High, Sylvanus and William, Jr. Pierson, Ebenezer Price, etc. Among those officers and men who took an active part in the capture of the British ship, Blue Mountain Valley, Jan. 22, 1776, are the names of many Westfield families: Baker, Clark, Marsh, Meeker, Pierson, Miller, etc.. Moreover such worthy citizens as JOHN HIGH, Squier, Pierson, etc., a ll Westfield men of probity, honor, and position.' --Hist. of Union Co., Ricord, p. 512. 'Following is list of Westfield men, mostly who served under under Capt. Little: Robt. and John Aken, Jr., Jacob Bagley, William Henry, and David Baker, William, Jessie, Azariah, Charles, and John C. Clarke; John, Jr. and Jacob Crane, JOHN HIGH, Cornelius Ludlam, Enoch Clark, Noah Miller, Ephraim and Abraham M., ~~Graham~~ Marsh, Sylvanus and William, Jr. Pierson, Ebenezer Price, Moses Ross, etc. Many others served under Capt. Scudder, Capt. Matthias Clark, etc. This Volunteer Company, called the Jersey Blues, should be fitted out with the proper clothing, so women made two frocks and pantaloons dyed with blue, did their own spinning, trimmed with colored tapes, giving the company a singular appearance, known as the Jersey Blues. Many followed Gen. Washington, and ~~were~~ in the regular army to Morristown.'

In passing, would say that the Cornelius Ludlam, mentioned in 2nd paragraph was the first husband of Abigail Pierson of Westfield, who upon his death married Elihu Price of Elizabeth, N.J., the grandfather of Mahlon Dickenson Miller, Sen. " (given by Grace Miller LeFurge)

Matthew Williams Family, Through Son, Samuel Williams

Miscellany-Group 4, p. 5

From History of Elizabeth, N.J., Hetfield, p. 375

"Samuel WILLIAMS was one of the memorialists of 1700 together with his son, Joseph. He was then a newcomer, as his name is found in no earlier document. He was the son of Matthew Williams of Wethersfield, Conn. and the Brother of Matthew who settled at Newark, N.J. He was born in 1618, and married Esther, a daughter of Nathaniel Wheeler of Newark, N.J. He died in 1706, leaving five sons, Joseph, Samuel, Nathaniel, David, and Josiah; and three daughters, Susannah, Sarah, and Esther.

"His wife is not named in his will, and had probably died before.. The family located on the Westfield road, and gave the name of "Williams Farms" to the locality, several of the name still occupying portions of the old plantation."

1. Richard Williams
A descendant of Williams family of Glamorganshire, Wales.

11. Matthew Williams-b. about 1605, was doubtless a brother of Thomas who later settled at Rocky Hill (old Wethersfield) and a cousin of Richard Williams of Taunton (b. Jan. 28, 1606, son of William Williams, a descendant of a family of that name in Glamorganshire, Wales. William Williams was of Symwell, a hamlet in the Wotten-under-Edge. According to his will, he speaks of his brother, Mr. Richard Williams).

Miscellany-Group 4, p. 6

Matthew Williams of Wethersfield was a bricklayer by trade, and a yeoman, which is proved by the earmarks of his cattle, which were recorded in the records.

After 1655 he was for a time at Long Island, and eventually at Barbadoes, though still a householder at Wethersfield, January 14, 1678. According to Hutton's emigration records, he was granted a ticket of leave, back to the colony with his servant, a slave. His death probably occured the following year (1679), for in 1680 his widow, Susannah Williams asked the court at Wethersfield to appraise the estate and divide between the sons. This step on her part probably fixes a conclusive date for the departure of the widow and her three sons, as follows:

Amos, now 25 years of age, with his wife and three children
Matthew, 29 years of age
Samuel, 27 years of age

All came to Essex County, N.J. in the second Branford emigration, Samuel settling at Elizabethtown and Amos nearby. Samuel died in 1706.

9 Of Scotch-Irish origin-s ettled in north of Ireland under James 1-Rebellious lords had to flee to Continent, so king invited the Scots who were more peaceable and industrious to occupy the Province of Ulster-came in large numbers-rigid
10 Presbyterian standards. Religious persecution under Charles 1,
11 Charles 11, and James 11. Patience of people exhausted, left Ireland for American colonies. By 1729 six thousand Scotch-Irish had come.. Before 1750, nearly 12,000 came annually for some years, most of them to Pennsylvania. Scotch settlements
12 were Western frontiers of Pa. They did not mix well with the 13 Quakers and Germans on lands albng the Susquehanna. In 1722, some families of Robinsons took up lands in Donegal Township, then Lancaster Co, Pa. First authentic record of our Robinson ancest ry, in 1750, in list of taxables and early settlers of Hanover Township, now Dauphin Co., Pa., names of Philip 13 Robinson and s on Samuel Robinson. Also, in 1750, we find the names of Thomas Robinson, WilliamsRobinson, a second William Robinson, and James Robinson, and James Robinson, and families connected by marriage with the Robinsons-McCord, Black, Crawford, Martin, Logan, Fisher, Moorhead, and Ramsay.

15 Philip was settled at Manada Gap, (1750) in the line of the Kinnochtinny Valley (now Cumberland Co.) where Manada Creek issuess from the mountains east of the Susquehanna river..

15 & George Robinson, son of Philip, patented lands in 1753 on 32 Sherman's Creek (Shearman), west of the Susquehanna, and be-
34 yond the Kinnochtinny. Their home in Central Pa. was in peace
37 20 or 30 years. Philip, with his sons, Samuell and George, re-sided at Manada Gap, a pass in the Kinnochtinny, some 16 miles northeast of Harrisburg. About 20 miles from the river, with a few others, the settlements were begun and forts were e-rected for the protection of the neighborhood, on the farms of 59 both Philip and his son George. George had a fort and served p.52 53
in the Revolutionary War. Indian outrages in Sherman's Valley
36 began in the early part of the year 1756. Murders were committed by the Indians in January of that year. It is said of George Robinson, that while out in his fields plowing, an alarm was given, that the Indians were close at hand. He instantly de-
37 tached his horses from the plow, placed his wife with her child, an infant of three days, in her arms, on one, and, mounting on the other, they fled over the Kittatinny Mountains to Carlisle, a distance of nearly 20 miles. The people on the frontiers
39 were at length compelled to abandon this valley. Many left
50 their harvests unreaped, and many were surprised and massacred while they reaped. William Robinson, one of three brothers, who were of a party of 12 scouts, as he lay weltering in his blood in his last agonies, handed his gun to a comrade, saying, "Take my gun, and peace or war, wherever you see an Indian, kill him for my sake and I shall..." (note lost)

59 George's son, Jonathan, was a Captain, 1776-1777 (Jonathan is not in our line). He was born in Lancaster Co., Pa., June p.52.
15, 1752, and was raised in Cumberland Co. In 1785, he moved to Scott Co., Kentucky. George, with eight of his children and their families, moved to Kentucky. George was buried by

"George Robinson of Sherman's Valley, served for some time in the army (in the Revolution) and the gun which he carried is still preserved as an honored relic in a Robinson family in Kentucky. He was already past middle life, being nearly 50 years of age, when the war opened."

Data on Frances Robinson, wife of Alexander F. Williams:

"Alexander Williams and Frances Robinson were married at Belvidere, Ill., she lived there for some years before her marriage. I think she went to school in Chicago but can't prove it without more facts. Father wrote to Mother in the years '56 and 57, just before they were married and from tenor of them and wording, should judge they were written to Belvidere; in one he said he hoped to see her when he went to Chicago, as she was going to visit her aunt. In reading the paper that mother wrote, she says she was from Chicago. I sure can't understand that. Bessie Crosby told me they all lived in Belvidere when she (F.R.W.) was a young lady."

(data given by Ella Williams Thompson (Mrs. John S.) taken from letters of her parents, also from the old family Bible which she has-a true copy of parts of her letter written July 7, 1932, from Escondido, Cal.-F.C.V.)

Data on Frank Robinson, brother of Frances Williams, from a letter she wrote to Mr. G.E. Swope, dated Nov. 32 1897, in Davenport, Iowa. (I have copy here of entire letter. F.C.V.)

"I will add that my brother Frank- served all through the War of the Rebellion, had a serious sunstroke, and swamp fever in Virginia, so gave the remainder of the time to work in Tenn- under christian commission- he never fully regained his health, and was a great sufferer for the last last six years of his life.--- I do not know very much about my father's relatives, excepting through Cousin p. 51 Thomas Robinson----."

(As a child in Davenport, Ia., I remember Uncle Frank very well, sick in bed, a white beard - tended by his lovin little wife, Aunt Carrie. Their daughter Alice is still a kindergarten teacher in Davenport. She took her teacher's training in Chicago, I believe at "Gertrude House". -F.C.V.)

Ref.-Data given by Ella Williams Thompson,dau of Frances Robinson & Alex.F.Williams,from letters of her parents,also from the old Family Bible which she has- a true copy of parts of her letter,written July 7,I932,Escondido,Cal. :-

"Alexander Williams and Frances Robinson were maried at Belvidere,Ill.She lived there for some years before her marriage.I think she went to school in Chicago but can't prove it without more facts.Father wrote to mother in the years 56 & 57,just before they were married and from the tenor of them and the wording should judge they were written to Belvidere,in one he said he hoped to see her when he went to Chicago,as she was going to visit her aunt. In reading the paper that mother wrote,she says she was from Chicago.I sure can't understand that.Bessie crosby told me tney allived in Belvidere when she (F.R.W.) was a young lady."

Ella W.Thompson copied from some things that were said when she visited Uncle Dwight in Pasadena Cal.-Bessie Crosby's address is 630 South Los Robles,Pasadena.- Ida Burgess is in New York. Frances C.Van Metre has a painting by Ida Burgess,a study of American Beauty Roses in water colors.It was given her by her grandma, Frances R.Williams,for whom Ida Burgess made the painting before I9I0.

Anna W.Crawford told her dau. Frances Van Metre how the number of different Crosby cousins were related -the list of whose daughter each one is,was dictated by Mrs. Crawford to F.C.V. in I926,then visiting in Los Angeles.

Album of SarahCrosby (Robinson) belonging to Gene C. Shull, Perth Amboy, N.J.-:
"Your affectionate father --N---- C----(who was Nathaniel)-- Belvidere May 26th 1840"
"To Sarah---- Your mother" (who was Sarah Larned Crosby)
"To Sister Sarah---Your sister Ophelia---New York Sept 1838"
"Sister --- F.W.C. (who was Frederick William)

Original letter written to Joseph M.Robinson by Sarah Crosby (before their marriage) Dec 30-1833. (She was very much excited over a revival of religion, also spoke of Joseph's great interest in the Temperance cause. Very little of the tender emotion is expressed, tho she wants him to care for his health)- The letter was given to F.C.V. by her mother, Mrs.Crawford, 1926. The latter died 1928.

Following Crosby History given by Ella W.Thompson:
"Crosby means, Town of the Cross -the termination, by in English is Danish form of burgh, bury, or borough. In the history of the English, the name Crosby appears in these ways- -In 1205 the king(?) to Odo de Grosseby; in 1266, John Crosby, wealthy merchant of London, sheriff, and member of parliament, who became Sir John Crosby, erected the splendid Crosby Hall on the East side of Bishop's-gate in London. Another John Croseby is mentioned in Edinburg, John and David Crosby 1613. There are eight places in Great Britain named Crosby. There is the Crosby Light in Liverpool Harbor. The Crosbys from North England 1220 are undoubtedly from Lancashire.

From notes in Robinson Family History, part of a letter written by Frances R.Williams about her father:
"My father Joseph McKinney Robinson was born 25 Dec 1807 at NorthEast, Pennsylvania. He was married 10July 1834 to Sarah Larned Crosby of Fredonia, N.Y. Their home for three years was at Albany, N.Y., them moved to Houston, Texas- where he died in Dec 22- 1843- he was in merchantile business- and was an honored member of the Presbyterian church- he died of consumption- my mother Sarah L.Crosby was born in Thompson, Conn.-Aug 15, 1813- after my father's death, our home was at Belvidere, and Chicago, Illinois. She died Oct 14" 1865 at Rosemond, Ill.(she married again)- was a consistant christian and member of Baptist church-" --(more of this letter is given in Robinson Family history, which see). It was written Nov 3, 1897, Davenport, Iowa.

Notes from Hist. Fayette Co., Pa. :- "Jennings family of New Jersey descend from Jenningses of Suffolk Co., England but the American ancestor cannot be named. Tradition says he came in ship, 'Caledonia' which was wrecked off coast of Perth Amboy-the log book was saved and can be found in New York court records-no record made of landing of passengers-therefore we begin with Benjamin Jennings, a son or grandson of the emigrant, who is said to have been the father of the seven brothers-1. Joseph, 2. Zebulon, 3. Jacob, 4. Benjamin, 5. Jonathan, 6. John, 7. David. Tho this is the first definite knowledge of the family, their immediate ancestry has not been ascertained, nor is their birthplace known. Some are thought to be cousins rather than brothers. The father of one of the seven was Benjamin, proven by receipt given by Benjamin Jennings: 'For money for wages due my son Benjamin Jennings, junior, late a soldier in the New Jersey regiment '... dated Aug. 7, 1759. (Colonial Wars).. The line is traced of the Benjamin whose wages were collected as noted."-(I copied this in State Historical Library, Des Moines, Ia. -F.C.V.) one of books given above.

Wm. Crawford Memorial - Eddy - 1904.

In 1829, Jennings and Sarah Evans Crawford moved to Knox Co., Ohio, and settled on a quarter section deeded them by his wife's father, George Evans. The land was located near Mt. Vernon, near village of Gambier. Kenyon College was later established here.

"She was a sister of my father, Abel Evans. My folks went to Ohio (Sara) when Jennings Crawford did and they lived near each other. They too (Evan received land from George Evans. They all came to this country together (eastern Iowa) in wagons. Two years ago (letter written Jan. 1, 1931) the Jordan's Grove Church which your grandfath er (Jennings C.) helped organize celebrated their fiftieth anniversary." (W. E. M.)

Ann C., dau. of Jennings and Sarah C. died Apr. 23, 1854, aged 26 years, 8 months (of first marriage)

The dates given by Hills in book on Knox Co., O. I have changed in favor of the dates given by Eddy in his Crawford Book, because I knew that Wm. Eddy, whose wife was a Crawford relative, visited George Crawford, Cedar Rapids, Ia., when collecting material for his book. George was the oldest son of Sarah Price Crawford and lived near Jordan's Grove. She passed the later years of her life in George's home, Cedar Rapids. (F.C.V.)

"His wife died in 1845, and in 1 847 he ma rried Sarah Price, who was a strong helpmate in the highest sense during the second period of his life. In the spring of 1851 he sold his f arm with the intention of going farther west and obtaining more land. On the 6th of September, 1853, he, with four other families, drove across the country in covered wagons, and crossed the Mississippi River at Muscatine, Iowa, on the 1st day of October locating temporarily for the winter at Solon, near Cedar Rapids, Iowa. After careful inspection of the surrounding country in eastern Iowa, he entered 640 acres of prairie land from the government at $1.25 per acre, and bought 40 acres of timber land adjoining it at the edge of Jordan's Grove, about 10 miles north east of Marion, in Linn County, some three miles s outh of the Wapsie-pinicon River. The next year he built a large story and a half house and with his family moved upon his prairie farm, whose broad acres were teeming with fertility and agricultural re-sources of every description."-William C rawford Memorial, W.P.. Butler Family (concl'd)

Ref:- Joseph L. Butler and his wife told me personally the data on his family. In the Center Point cemetery, Center Point, Iowa, I saw and copied monument and head stones of Francis Butler, d. 1887; Joseph Butler, d. 1889; and Celia Butler, d. 1879, where these were buried.
I saw the inscriptions in the Bible belonging to Mrs. Chas. Benion, giving data on children of Joseph Butler and Dora Daniels and other Butler data. (March, 1938-F.C.V.)

Note:- Joseph L., the youngest grandson was called "Petite" (the little one) by his French grandfather. The name became simple "Pete" to the other children, so that is how he got his nickname.
